

“NOTHING BUT NATIONAL!” SUPERSTAR #3 IN THE WORLD WOMEN!

Blazing hot night at the Marriott!!! So many of you sharing your ah-ha moments of January Jumpstart and great discussion about servant leadership. So for those of you who were not present last night....ask yourself this: WHAT PERCENTAGE SHOULD YOU BE WILLING TO GIVE IN A RELATIONSHIP? We had so many great opinions about this very question. Think about it for a minute.

Darren Hardy, publisher of SUCCESS magazine has this view; until you are willing to give 100% without expecting gain you are still mastering the art of servant leadership.

Our very own Stacey Badura shared a great exercise at January Jumpstart which she shared again at our success meeting. When faced with disappointment, whether that be a cancelled appointment, a no show or anything else for that matter; Take a moment, pause, put your hand on your heart and say “Bless her soul, She’s just doing the best she can” then erase it, throw confetti over yourself and let it go!
